Neil and Paul at 10 pin Bowling, it looks like they're having a great time!

Isn't this a lovely picture of Sheree? What a beautiful smile she has....

The hearts she's been making in the clay group are fridge magnets, maybe she's started her Christmas gift list early!

It looks like Alexander's been making dishes of some sort, maybe trinket boxes?

Sandra reading to the service users, they seem to be paying close attention to every word!

Aiden seems to be enjoying it, I wonder what the story was.

This is Craig taking part in a drawing group.

Tommy's picture might give you a bit of a clue about the subject.

This is Carly with what looks like pumpkins, do you think they could be making decorations for Halloween?

You can see lots of things related to Halloween, in the picture below. We might have to wait to see if that is what they are for.

ages, rather than receiving traditional gifts they asked their wedding guests to donate to Antonine. They raised the huge sum of £5500!

Antonine's Got Talent

Well! What can we say? Apart from that it was simply awesome!

What a fabulous show the Service User's and staff put on! The audience thoroughly enjoyed it. Here is a selection of photos from the show.

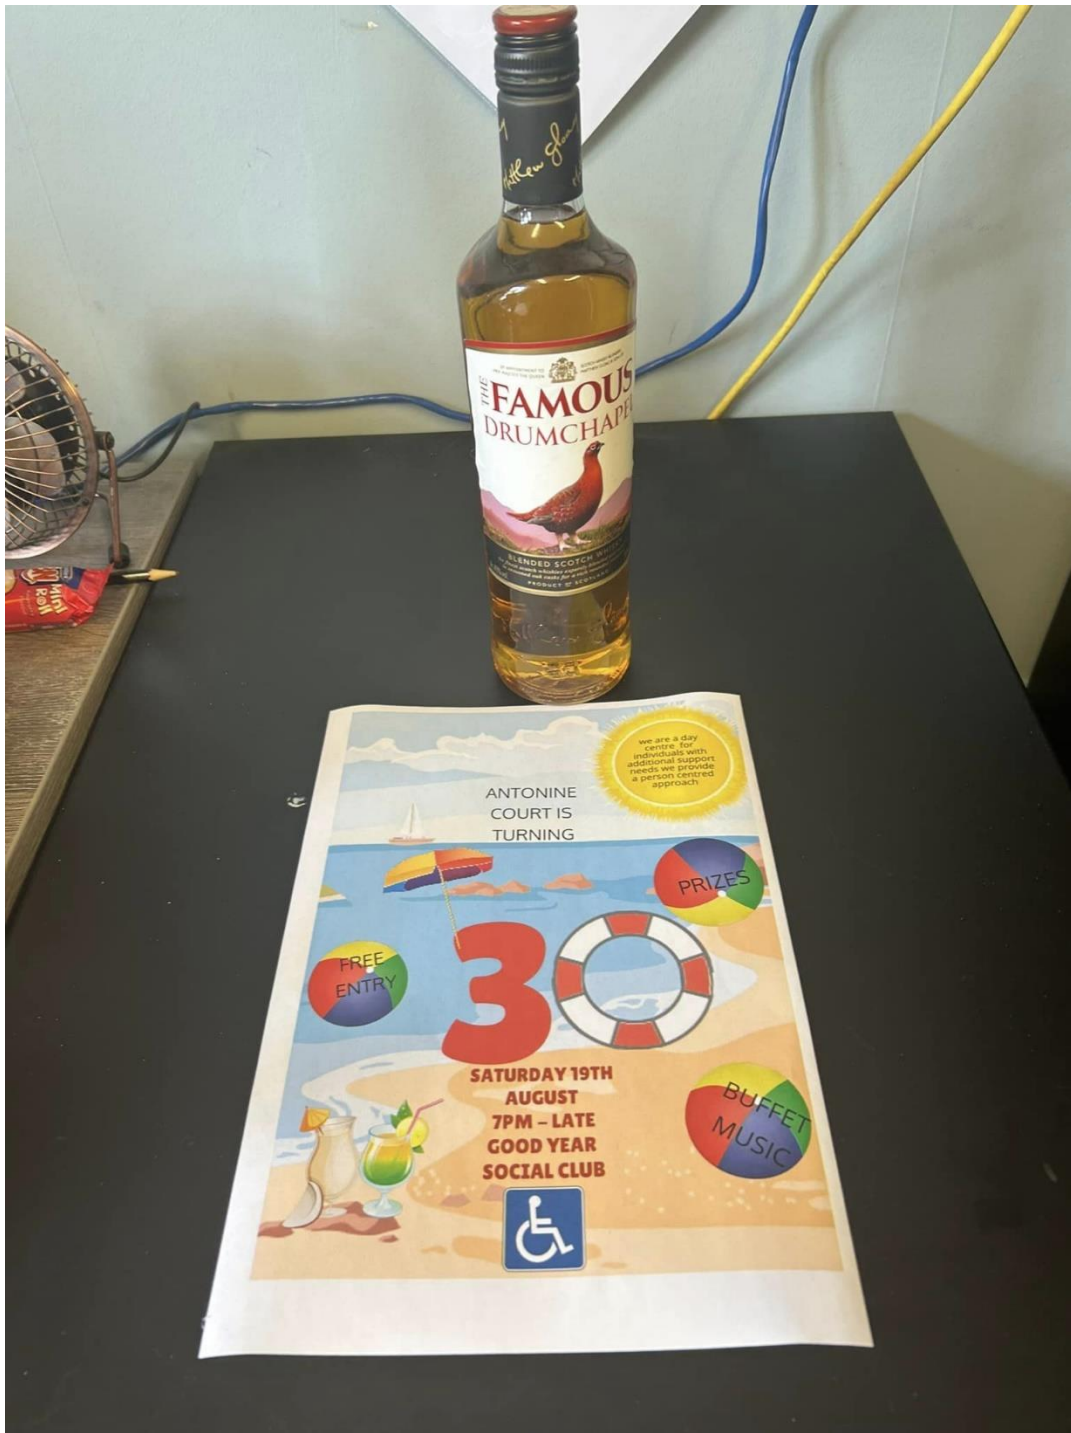

Oh! And not to be dismissed, £200 was raised towards the cost of materials for activities in the Centre, so a huge thanks to everyone who contributed to making this happen!

Once again Service Users, Staff, families and outside local organisations like Edrington out did themselves with the preparation and donations, so a huge thanks to them for helping make our Birthday Celebrations fabulous! We have a few pictures for folk who couldn't be there! A total of £517 was raised!

As always, a celebration in Antonine must involve CAKE!

Phew!! What a month!

Once again, we'd like to thank everyone who took part in making this event so successful. We couldn't do it without your generous support!

Training Day (is that not a movie?)

We were closed on the 25th of August for staff training and the following are some of the pictures taken on the day.
