Happy Halloween

The Staff and Service users have been busy making Halloween decorations over the past few weeks. Tyler in particular has been busy the past week making and putting decorations up round the centre. These are pictures of the decorations around the centre.

I'm sure you'll agree the centre looked amazing!

Then there was the Halloween Social Night, that was a fabulous evening with lots of people getting dressed up for the occasion!

Here we have Jane as the Queen of Hearts.

Sandra as Snow White, I think she left the dwarves at home!

This is Robert and his family.

This is Carly with her Mum and Dad; Carly is one of our newer service users. I think she's enjoying her time with us so far!

Rhona with her sister Sheena..

Everyone had a fabulous time and £526 was raised to provide service users with activities or craft materials, so a big thank you to everyone who came and made it so successful!

THEN TODAY there were more Halloween celebrations in the centre

Anyone know who Mark is?

It's his idol the great Freddy Mercury!

Hugh's costume is a bit gruesome but very authentic looking....

There were more activities with the service users and staff making Halloween cakes and biscuits for the buffet.

The Orange tubes were lucky dips, the top was tissue paper that the Service users popped to get at the treats inside! A fabulous idea!

I don't know who thought it up, but the service users had a lot of fun with it!
