On the left is Karen, below, Alan, both concentrating very hard on their colouring in.

Neil getting ready to take his turn in bocchia, (it must be really thirsty work, Alan's in the background having some juice.

Annie on the right, there are plenty of spectators, I wonder if they're supporting anyone in particular.

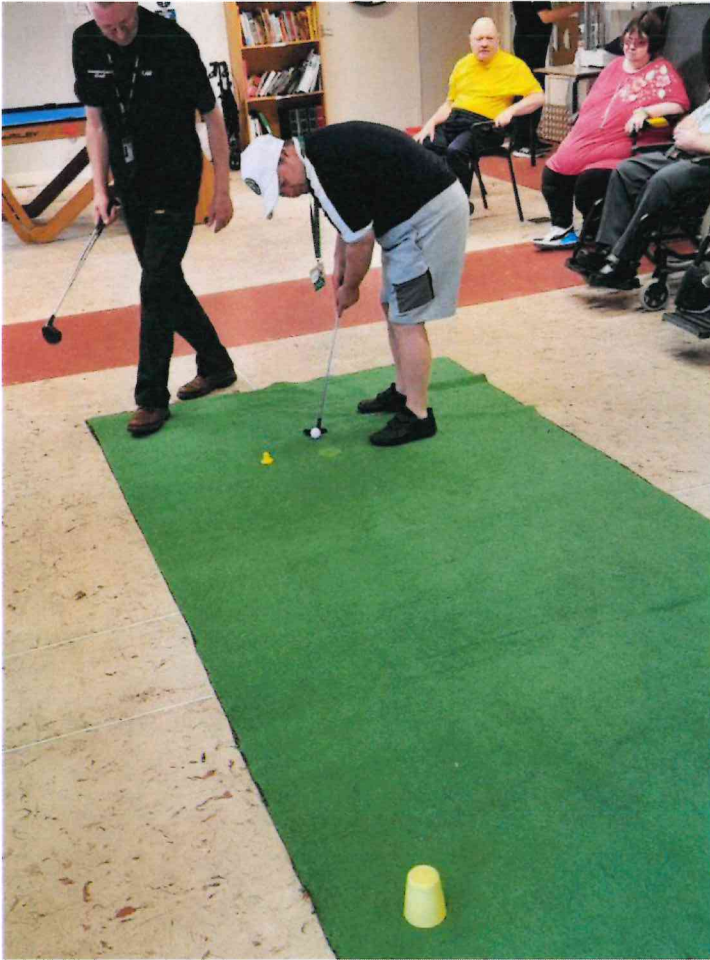

Sheree looking very pleased with the hearts and bowl that she's made in the clay group.

She has done a wonderful job of them!

This looks a bit like the scene from Ghost!
Roberta has done a wonderful job too!

Because the weather hasn't been very good there have been a lot of games played inside the building. This is Mark having a go at putting....

As you can see from the picture below there are lots of different games going on at the same time

Jenny's waiting for her turn at target ball.

Wonder what the independent living skills group is doing this time?

I see Carly's mixing bananas into something and Jackie's crushing something in that bowl, the other bowl has what looks like caramel in it. Any ideas yet?

Oh! It's banoffee pie and cheesecake!! YUM!

The gardening group have been busy creating a new compost bin, this is Alexander and Alan doing some prep work.....

The Guys helping Mark and David McGorm.

It looks like it was a lot of hard work, we'll get pictures of the finished bin in a future edition of the Newsletter! The guys have done a fantastic job!

Rhona "giein it laldy" at the karaoke! Robert looks like he's enjoying the song....

Annie cheering someone on!

Goodbye Mhari!

Mhari has been our Tai chi tutor for a long time. She took the decision to retire this month, so the service users and staff threw a retirement party for her....

As you can see she's always up for a laugh! You can just see the flowers and gifts she received.

and of course, there were the obligatory cakes and biscuits.

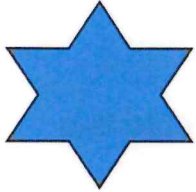

Mhari, Everyone at Antonine would like to wish you all the best in your retirement! We'll miss you!
